Charity Golf Day

In summary your organization will benefit significantly from exposure to a keenly interested, relevant and influential audience in an environment away from everyday distractions and clutter. If internal auditors or other high net worth individuals with the opportunity to influence business and industry are part of your target market, there is no better way to show your interest than by partnering with us and our partners and Kobus Wiese of course

Players have the option of hiring a Golf cart - additional fees will apply (limited no available) .

The competition format will be Better ball Stableford (best score to count)

Sponsorship packages available at the Golf day have been specifically designed to complement the tone and activities of the day. Platinum and Gold packages have been designed to provide highly visible branding linked to specific exclusive benefits affording each sponsor a meaningful return on their sponsorship, and reducing the risk of brand dilution.

There are a range of packages to select from that suit a variety of Marketing Needs.
